WHEREAS, It has been made known to me that ALBION T. RYAN did, on the 24th of August, 1858, in the county of Clark, kill and murder Francis McDonald, and has since fled from justice.
Now, therefore, I, CHARLES S. MOREHEAD,
Governor of the Commonwealth aforesaid, by virtue of the authority vested in me by law, do hereby offer a reward of Two Hundred Dollars for the apprehension of said RYAN, and his delivery to the jailer of Leon county within one year from the date hereof.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand, and caused the seal of the Commonwealth to be hereunto affixed, this 24th day of October, A. D. 1858, and in the 67th year of the Commonwealth.

By the Governor, C. S. MOREHEAD,

Appointment by the Court of Appeals.

On Tuesday the Judges of the Appellate Court appointed James P. Metcalf, Esq., of this place, Reporter of the Decisions of the Court of Appeals, vice Hon. Ben. Monroe, whose term of office had expired. The appointment is one of the best that could have been made out of the whole bar of the State. Mr. Metcalf has every qualification for the post. He has learning, talent, and industry as a lawyer, and has a vigorous and perspicuous style as a writer. We can say, from an intimate acquaintance with him, and without intending to disparage the merits of his predecessor, who has held the post for eighteen years, that the Kentucky Reports, in his hands, will appear to the best advantage, and will be gotten up in better style than they have ever yet been. Convenience of access to the records of the Court of Appeals, which are kept here, points to Frankfort as the proper place of residence for the Reporter, and in this respect, also, the appointment is a good one. Mr. Metcalf has resided here since last spring.

At the important session of 1850-51, when the body of our Statute Laws and Code of Practice were adopted, Mr. Metcalf, then a very young man, represented the county of Nicholas, which rarely elects one of its political faith to the State Legislature. Shortly afterwards he was appointed, by Governor Powell, Secretary of State. He held this position until he resigned it in 1854, to move to Mason county to practice his profession. He has been engaged in the practice of law since his removal to this place, and we hope now that we may consider him among the permanent institutions of Frankfort. He will be found a valuable accession to his party here, and we know of no one whose residence amongst us would prove more acceptable to the mass of our citizens. We congratulate him upon his promotion, and the Democratic party upon being so well represented in office.

The Result in Indiana.

Democratic news is proverbially slow in coming in. After all, it seems that we are not so badly beaten in Indiana as the Black Republicans and their southern sympathizers and allies, the Know-Nothing party, would have us to believe. Returns from the entire State show 2,384 majority for the Democratic State ticket, and the full official returns will probably exceed this. Four Democratic Judges of the Supreme Court are secured for six years. Considering the many disadvantages at which our candidates were placed, with divisions in our ranks, and an opposition composed of Abolitionism, Black Republicanism, Know-Nothingism, Free-soilism, and free niggerism, aided by disaffected Democrats, to combat against, the success of the Democratic State ticket is a great and important triumph. The Senate and the House are nearly on a tie between the Democracy and the opposition.

The next Legislature will stand as follows:

SENATE.
Democrats holding over.....	10
Regular, elected.....	12
Independent, elected.....	3
Total.....	25
Republicans holding over.....	13
Regular, elected.....	11
Opposition Independent.....	1

HOUSE.
Democrats, regular, elected.....	45
Independent, elected.....	5
Total.....	50
Republicans, regular, elected.....	44
Independent, Whigs and Americans.....	6

Mr. Hughes, Democrat, is defeated for Congress in the Madison District, Indiana; not by the Democrats of the District, but by the Democratic vote, which was drawn off by the bolter, Carr, who received near seven hundred Democratic votes in Lawrence, Jackson, and Switzerland counties. Hughes is only beaten by six hundred and twenty-three votes, while Carr received more than that in three counties.

Ohio Election.—According to the best reports we have from the several counties in Ohio, the majority of the Fusion State ticket will be about twenty thousand. At the Presidential election the majority of the same party was forty-five thousand. The same ratio of increase will give the Democracy the State in 1860 by five thousand majority.

Visitors.—Yesterday and day before Hon. John C. Mason, Capt. W. E. Simms, and Capt. J. W. Leathers, were in Frankfort.

REPORTED NARROW ESCAPE OF THE PRESIDENT.—The Washington Union, of the 2d inst., noticing the examination of W. Strong, a lunatic, who fired into a Lodge of Free Masons, in that city, wounding one of them, says:

Among other singular stories, he relates an interview in December last with the President, whose protection he was anxious to gain. Before going to the White House he had armed himself, and avows that it was his intention to have shot the President if he had not supposed he was kindly disposed towards him. In reply to the inquiry what he would have done had the President told him he did not want to have anything to do with him, he replied emphatically that he "would have shot him." If he really had in the interview, it will be seen at once that the President's life was in imminent danger, for the man seems to act wholly regardless of consequences.

Lieutenant Wise, of the navy, well-known as the author of "Los Gringos" and other popular books of travel, has been for some time at Baden-Baden for the benefit of his health, which had been dangerously impaired by an accident at the Washington Navy Yard a few months since. By the arrival of the North Star, however, his friends are apprised of a most encouraging improvement in his bodily condition. Lieut. Wise is a nephew of Governor Wise, of Virginia, whose name he bears, and the son-in-law of Edward Everett.

John Henderson, Jno. Sutton, and Michael Kinard, charged with murder, escaped from the jail in Springfield, Ky., on Thursday night, by sawing the iron gates and jumping from the second story window of the jail. Another prisoner, Tom Vocum, charged with murder, could not escape, being too large to make his exit through the place in the grate. He got partly through and then hung, calling loudly for help. This awoke the jailer, who came to his assistance and extricated him.

The Military Asylum at Harrodsburg has been discontinued, and the inmates ordered to the Asylum at Washington City. They left Kentucky last week under the charge of Capt. L. B. Wood, late acting Governor of Harrodsburg Institution. It will be remembered that Maj. T. L. Alexander, formerly Governor of the Asylum, was last winter removed to that at Washington. The land at Harrodsburg will not now be sold.

The U. S. Circuit Court for the Kentucky District commenced its fall term on Monday, Justice Catron and Judge Monroe on the bench. A suit involving the titles to a large quantity of land in Morgan county has brought a number of the citizens of that county to Frankfort. Among these we notice our old friends, Ben. F. Gardiner, Esq., and Judge Wm. Lykins.

Chas. Anderson, author of "Lake Ngami," who has undertaken to explore the Ovampo country in the direction of the river Cuene, has been heard from. It appears that after successfully prosecuting several hundred miles of his journey, he was compelled to return, owing to the scarcity of water and the duplicity of his guides.

The Democrats of Indianapolis had a tremendous rejoicing, Monday night, over the election of the State ticket. Five thousand persons, it is said, assembled at the Palmer House and in the vicinity, who were addressed by Lieut. Gov. Hammond, Gov. Willard, John L. Robinson, Dan'l McClure, and Messrs. Beach, Hanna, and Voorhies.

Iowa Election.—The Chicago Times, of Saturday, is of the opinion that Leffingwell (Democrat) is elected to Congress from the second district of Iowa. He has gained four thousand votes in eleven counties on Fremont's majority, which was six thousand in the district.

The Female Orphan Asylum at Midway, or rather the main portion of the building, was burned down on the 18th. The loss is about $7,000. Fortunately, however, the disaster will not interfere materially with the operations of the institution.

FORREST'S DEPARTURE FROM THE STAGE.—The Wheeling correspondent of the Baltimore Sun says: "I have just read a letter from Edwin Forrest to a gentleman at the hotel, wherein he says, most emphatically, that he will never appear as an actor again."

There is an increased interest manifested in the discourses of Elder W. T. Moore, pastor of the Christian Church, his audiences being large and deeply interested. The subject for to-night will be, "The Commission of Christ to his Apostles."

ANOTHER ATLANTIC CABLE TO BE LAID.—It is said to be the intention of the British government to lay another cable between Ireland and Newfoundland next year, in the event of their being unable to work through the present line.

BALTIMORE RACES.—The three mile race over the Central Race Course, Baltimore, on Friday, was won by Gov. Wickliffe, beating Parachute and Laura Spillman. Parachute won the first heat. Time 5:52½, 5:54, 6:04.

Hurley's Quick Yeast, near the post-office, is an excellent article for light bread of any description, so prompt in its action that the best bread may be produced in a few minutes. Try it.

Mr. Walker, formerly an assistant editor of the London Daily News, succeeds to the management of that journal, the place lately made vacant by the death of its accomplished editor, Mr. William Weir.

ARREST OF MURDERERS.—Arlie and Jim Haley, who, with their father, murdered five or six men in Cocke county, in August, at a barbecue, passed through this city on Saturday, in charge of a St. Louis policeman. They were arrested in the northwestern part of Missouri. The youngest is only 17 years old, but, like his brother and father, is said to be cruel and blood thirsty. A thousand dollars reward was offered by the Governor of Kentucky for their apprehension.—Lou. Courier, 16th.

Democratic Meeting in Hickman County.

At a meeting of the Democrats of Hickman County, Ky., held in the court-house in Clinton, October 4th, 1858, pursuant to public notice, W. J. N. Welborn, Esq., was called to the chair, and L. L. Singletary appointed Secretary. The object of the meeting was briefly explained by the Chairman, and the following gentlemen appointed a committee to draft resolutions expressive of the meeting, viz.: S. F. Rennie, Ed. Crossland, L. V. Lee, R. W. Walker, and M. V. Tomlinson. During the absence of the committee, the meeting was addressed by Mr. Singletary in the most pertinent manner, after which the committee appeared and reported the following resolutions, all of which were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That the Administration of President Buchanan is eminently conservative, patriotic, and wise.

Resolved, That we view with regret and concern the efforts now being made by certain leaders of the American party in Kentucky, to give aid and comfort to the enemies of the South by uniting that party with the Black Republican party, and that such efforts are disgraceful to those claiming the name of Kentuckians.

Resolved, That we feel grateful to those patriotic Whigs who made common battle with the Democracy in 1855 and since, and that much of the recent success of our party is attributable to their patriotic exertions, and that we feel confident that they will not now desert us, when the success of the party will in all probability bring about a dissolution of our Federal Union.

Resolved, That as an evidence of our sincerity in opposing all the "isms" which threaten the integrity of the Union, and of our devotion to the principles of Democracy, we respectfully present to the Democracy of Kentucky, the Hon. Geo. W. Silvertooth, of this county, who, from his long experience and unswerving devotion to the principles of Democracy, is eminently fitted for the high place of Governor of this Commonwealth.

Resolved, While presenting Col. Silvertooth as our first choice, we stand pledged to support the nominee of the Democratic State Convention, and that the following gentlemen are hereby appointed delegates to represent this county in said Convention: Messrs. W. J. Walker, J. M. Beal, S. M. Caldwell, A. J. Barry, Ed. Crossland, S. Watt Rennie, J. S. Ringo, W. Lindsey, S. F. Rennie, S. M. Lee, Hudson Johnson, N. M. Johnson, W. P. Griffin, Wm. Cromwell, J. Bugge, J. McCalister, J. H. Hardin, Ed. Parker, Otho Hardin, R. M. Walker, W. S. Jordan, J. R. Drysdale, J. M. Johnson, Geo. Winter, and Nick Davis.

Resolved, That while we regret being compelled to disapprove of the action of the Democratic Central Committee, with regard to the time selected by it for holding the State Convention, we cannot, in view of the fact that the farmers, who constitute the bone and sinew of our party, can with much greater convenience to themselves attend the Convention if held on the 28th of January, we cannot but express our preference for that day, and we beg to be understood to say that we, in compliance with the time-honored custom of the Democracy of this State, call the Convention on the anniversary of the battle of New Orleans.

On motion, it was further Resolved, That the most effectual means of combating error and disseminating truth is the circulation of the press; and we, therefore, earnestly recommend to the Democracy of this county the Hickman Argus, the Paducah Herald, the Louisville Courier, and the Frankfort Yeoman, as journals worthy of their patronage.

On motion, it was also Resolved, That any Democrat from this county, who may be at Frankfort at the Convention, is requested to represent this county therein.

On motion, the Chairman and Secretary were added to the list of delegates to the Convention.

On motion, it was further Resolved, That the proceedings of this meeting be published in the Hickman Argus, Paducah Herald, Louisville Courier, Frankfort Yeoman, and that a copy thereof be forwarded to the Democratic Central Committee.

[From the Lexington Statesman.]
Register of the Land Office—Dr. Hugh Rodman.

FRANKFORT, Oct. 14, 1858

To the Editor of the Statesman: At the Democratic Convention to be held in this place on the 28th of January next, for the nomination of candidates for the different State offices, it is important that the best men should be selected, men of known worth and well qualified.

This requires much deliberation, and the claims of all presented to the Convention should be scrutinized. It should be asked, "is he honest, faithful, and well qualified?" It is time that all who wish well to the success of the party and the good cause, should begin to think of the claims of those who will be presented to the people as the candidates of the Democratic party in the election next year. The degree of success in that struggle depends much upon the character of the nominees. Without disparagement to the claims of others who have been mentioned as worthy candidates for the office of Register of the Land Office, allow one who has the success of the Democracy much at heart to suggest for consideration the name of Dr. Hugh Rodman, of Frankfort. He will make a good Register. He is a good and well tried Democrat, has a general acquaintance throughout the State, and is respected and popular wherever known. He has hosts of friends in this county and in Oldham and Henry counties, who would be glad to see him occupy an office for which all who know him are satisfied he is well fitted.

To those who have not the pleasure of a personal acquaintance with him, it can be said that he is a gentleman in every way of agreeable manner, good talents, and a business like life and qualifications. He would discharge the duties of the office faithfully and agreeably. He is faithful and well qualified, and is selected by the Convention, it is believed that he would accept, and by doing so would add much strength to the whole ticket.

DEMOCRAT.

Attorney General—H. W. Woolley.

The following from the Henderson Reporter of Oct. 14th, is a deserved compliment to R. W. Woolley, Esq., of Lexington. The race that Mr. Woolley made for the office of Attorney General in 1855, was a noble one. His eloquent voice was heard from one end of the State to the other. The people were then, however, mad with Know-Nothingism. It was vain to contend against the popular mind. Woolley was beaten in spite of all his efforts. He left as a willing sacrifice upon the dark lantern altar, but fell in the full panoply and with the true spirit of a conqueror, but not subdued soldier. Hon. James Harlan best him, not because he was his superior, but because he happened to belong to a party that forced him into office over Woolley. But the days of Harlan are numbered, and if Woolley could get one more chance at him, he would sink him beneath a majority from which the poor dark lantern man could never recover.—Lou. Courier.

Dr. Hugh Rodman.

We publish elsewhere a communication favoring the nomination of Dr. Hugh Rodman, of Frankfort, for the office of Register of the Land Office. A personal acquaintance with Dr. Rodman enables us to give our cordial endorsement to the encomiums passed by "Democrats" upon his high qualities as a gentleman, and his fidelity as a Democrat. We know him to be eminently qualified and highly deserving. His great popularity in those counties where he has resided, or is best known, leaves no doubt that he will be an available and successful candidate.—Lex. Statesman.

John L. Moore, Esq.

This gentleman is mentioned for Register of the Land Office. Long a resident of Frankfort, Mr. Moore's Democracy has been tried in the fires of proscription, and has stood the test. He has been always true to his party, and faithful to his principles. He is withal a man of high personal character, good business talent, and agreeable manners. We commend a consideration of his claims to the party.—Lex. Statesman.

Why Discouraged at Pennsylvania?

We discover that some of the Democratic papers, and several of our Democratic people, are almost prepared to enshroud themselves in sackcloth and ashes, on account of a temporary defeat in a few of the Pennsylvania Congressional elections. We have not much patience with such nervous, fidgety and disconsolate mourners. When we look at the past, and cross traitors in that State, who have become desperate because Mr. Buchanan preferred more reliable Democrats for public stations; when we reflect upon the combinations of all manner of factions arrayed against the Administration; when we learn that the old game of 1840 was played by the stockholders of the large manufacturing establishments to overawe the voters; when we bring to mind the cry of "tariff," "protection on iron," "protection on wool;" when we recollect that in the interior of the State Kansas was kept bleeding from its main artery, and anti-Leocompton howled and shrieked with all the lungs of a Beech or Nye; we say, when all these things are brought to our recollection, we are prepared to say that no Democrat, in or out of Pennsylvania, need feel the least alarm on account of the great coming contest in 1860, two years hence.

How did matters stand in 1854, two years preceding the last Presidential election? Then the cry, all the county through, was against the repeal of the Missouri Compromise line, the Kansas and Nebraska Territorial act. Upon these our opponents raised a most wonderful excitement. The whole county was vocal with denunciations against the President, Congress, and the Democratic party. How did the elections terminate in 1854? Why, the Democrats in Pennsylvania elected only five members of Congress out of the twenty-five; Ohio lost all and elected the entire opposition; Indiana lost twenty-one; Indiana lost the whole eleven, New Jersey returned only one out of the five; and New York was also overwhelmed, sending only five Democrats to Congress, while the opposition elected twenty-eight. Such was the fury of the hurricane which swept over these States in 1854. But its fury was very soon spent. The people, upon reflection, became content, the compromise was allowed to remain, no effort was made to restore 36 30, Kansas and Nebraska were acquiesced in, and in 1856, two years thereafter, the sober second thought was adopted by the people, and James Buchanan was triumphantly elected President, together with a large accession of Democratic members of Congress. In 1854, the clouds of despondency hung much heavier over our heads than they do now.

Then let the enemies of the administration enjoy their temporary victory in Pennsylvania; let them bring out their rusty field-pieces and explode their cartridges which have become noiseless from age. Their artillery has lain so long silent, "speechless," unused, that a little strong medicine may preserve it from entire decay. The victories of the "Republicans" are so "few and far between" that we feel disposed to give them the utmost latitude whenever they are entitled to the freedom of the Park.

But this temporary discomfiture in Pennsylvania is a perfect God-send to the Democratic party of this State and of New York. From the inactivity of our opponents, we began to fear that a fatal apathy might prevail in our ranks. From the fact that the "Republicans" had relinquished the idea of electing Morgan, many of our Democratic friends were beginning to become lukewarm in the cause. But the misfortune in Pennsylvania will at once arouse them to exertion. It will galvanize the Democratic hosts in their primary assemblies, re-ignite their fervor for the contest in November, and infuse a more determined zeal to sustain the Administration, and triumphantly elect our State, Assembly, Congress, and New York City tickets. We ask, then, why should we be discouraged on account of the result in Pennsylvania? There is not the least cause for it.

A HINDOO'S STORY.—A poor Hindoo, having been released from the cares of this world, and from a scruffy wife, presented himself at the gate of Brahma's paradise.

"Have you been through purgatory?" asked the god.

"No! but I have been married," he replied, seriously.

"Come in then; it's all the same."

At this moment arrived another man just defunct, who begged of Brahma to be permitted to go in also.

"Softly, softly! have you been through purgatory?"

"No! but what of that? Did you not admit, a moment ago, one who had not been there any more than I?"

"Certainly! but he has been married."

"Married! Who are you talking to? I have been married twice."

"Oh, pshaw!" replied Brahma, "get away!—Paradise is not for fools!"

OUR CHINESE POLICY.—The wisdom displayed in the management of our foreign relations, by President Buchanan and his Cabinet, exports praise even from his revilers. To the long list of acts, either one of which would be sufficient to confer lasting honor to any administration, is to be added that of securing to our country all the advantages of commercial intercourse with the Chinese, and all the privileges secured by France and England, by peaceful negotiation. Mr. Reed, acting under the excellent instructions given by Mr. Cass, in accordance with the views of the President, was entirely successful in the accomplishment of his mission, and is entitled to much credit for it. But still, the Administration should receive all due honor for devising the plan, and pointing out the mode of its execution. The nation may well be proud of the wisdom and statesmanship of its venerable Chief Magistrate.

"RUN FOR A DOCTOR!"—This was used to be the cry, when any accident or casualty happened by which anybody was hurt. "Run for Bragg's Arctic Liniment!" is now the cry, in such cases, by all who have seen or heard of its wonderful cures of wounds, bruises, contusions, burns, scalds, &c. We would venture to suggest, however, that it is better to keep the preparation always in the house, than to run for it when it is wanted in haste. "In time of peace prepare for war," is a wise maxim. An equally wise one, is "in time of health and safety prepare for sickness and accident."

The Traveling Community.

A remedy such as BEEHIVE'S HOLLAND BITTERS cannot be too highly recommended. To the traveling community, especially, it is certainly an invaluable remedy; having little or no exercise, constantly exposed, and subject to the effects of a change of climate and water, they require some pleasant medicine of this kind to regulate the bowels.

Rheumatism Cured.

To the readers of the Yeoman: Preserve this notice. If not afflicted yourself, you may see suffering humanity by sending it to some one who is.

Dr. Mortimore, by personal treatment, and the use of his remedy, by Physicians and Druggists, has cured probably twenty thousand cases of this painful and paralyzing disease—comprising cases of every seeming form, from those of a recent inflammatory (acute) character, to old chronic cases of ten, twenty, and even thirty years' standing.

This disease is becoming more prevalent every year, and is seldom cured, or even alleviated, by the usual course of treatment. In its active form it often proves fatal, or if not soon arrested, becomes chronic—stiffens the joints, contracts the ligaments, muscles, and tendons, and thus renders the sufferer a cripple for life, or, if ever afterwards cured, even by the use of this remedy, requires longer treatment and greater expense.

This is a vegetable internal remedy which cures the proprietor of it after long suffering, and all the usual remedies known had failed, and is safe to be used in any state of health—even by the delicate female or child, and its success, in curing rheumatism, is attested by thousands, among whom are eminent physicians, ministers of various denominations, prominent journalists, and individuals of high standing throughout our country, such as should inspire confidence in every rational mind.

This evidence can be had on call at the office; or those at a distance, by addressing the proprietor, will receive, by mail, a circular of evidence. The remedy can be had at $5 p bottle, or five bottles for $20. Persons ordering at a distance can remit at the proprietor's risk by registering letter, and the medicine will be forwarded by express, or as directed, to any place in the United States or Europe.

Apply to or address

THE "ELIXIR."

Prepared by Dr. JAS. WILLIAMS, for the cure of DYSPEPSY, and nothing but DYSPEPSY, (as advertised in another column,) has, by its own merits, obtained for itself so high a reputation in Philadelphia, that Physicians acquainted with its properties, are using it themselves and prescribing it to their patients, convinced, by observation, of its great efficacy in restoring the disordered digestive organs to healthy function. Numerous cases of Dyspepsia of the most aggravated character which were abandoned as incurable by some of the Medical Faculty, have, by the use of this Elixir, been restored to perfect health, as attested certificates testify.
